

Press Release

ATLANTA HR CONSULTANT NAMED 2008 CHAIRPERSON for SHRM

ATLANTA (May 27, 2008)—Cherie Pritchard, Vice President of HR Client Services for Flex HR, Inc., was recently named Chairperson for the Society of Human Resource Management (SHRM) for the Northeast Atlanta Geographical Emphasis Meeting (NE GEM). NE GEM is one of six Metro-Atlanta meetings held by SHRM members seeking to further develop their networking and professional development opportunities. The NE GEM meeting serves the members in Duluth, John's Creek, Norcross, Lawrenceville, Suwanee, Buford, and Gwinnett County.

Serving the Atlanta HR professional, SHRM provides comprehensive information and tools to HR professionals to enable them to make informed decisions; invests in the appropriate technology and infrastructure to provide access to and delivery of pertinent industry information; serves as the recognized HR community within Atlanta through which HR professionals have the opportunity to exchange ideas, develop of professional relationships, and sharpen their HR knowledge.

In addition to being an active leader in SHRM, Pritchard is involved in many other Atlanta business organizations. She served as the Chapter President for the American Society for Training and Development, the Founder and Chapter President of the Capital City Exchange Club of America, and the President for the College of Business Alumni Association at Florida State University to name of few.

Flex HR, Inc., a complete human resources department outsourcing firm, assists companies by providing an unparalleled and cost-saving approach to deliver scalable human resources leadership. The company provides a highly collaborative approach to align core human resources competencies to achieve the capital value expected from a company's human assets. Quickly, Flex HR translates business goals into meaningful human resources objectives and results. For more information on Flex HR, please visit www.FlexHR.com.

-End-

www.FlexHR.com